Top ATTRACTIONS

SMALL WORLD

As guests board their boats, they are serenaded by the cheerful tune of “It’s a Small World,” which plays throughout the ride. The journey takes them through various regions, each showcasing unique cultural elements and traditions. The finale brings all the dolls together, symbolising unity and harmony among the world’s children.

PETER PAN

Guests board pirate ships suspended from the ceiling, simulating the sensation of flying. The journey begins in the Darling children’s nursery, where visitors see Nana the nurse and the sleeping children. As Peter Pan’s shadow appears on the wall, he invites everyone to “off we go!”

PIRATES OF THE CARRIBEAN

Guests board small boats that navigate through various pirate-themed scenes, including a bustling port, a treasure-filled cavern, and a fiery town under siege. The attraction features detailed Audio-Animatronics, special effects, and atmospheric lighting to create an immersive experience.

RATATOUILLE

Guests begin their adventure in the charming Parisian district of La Place de Rémy, where they board “ratmobiles”—trackless ride vehicles designed to resemble rats. The journey takes them through oversized kitchen environments, simulating Remy, as he scurries through Gusteau’s restaurant.
